

Fairtrade Treasure Hunt

Competition runs from March 1st to 31st 2022

Can you find the letters we have hidden around Leighton Buzzard (High Street and nearby streets and alleys)? The letters spell out the name of something you might eat or use. The farmers who grow it live and work far away and they need to be paid enough money to look after and feed their families. They are also suffering with the impact of climate change which is affecting their crops and they need help to solve these challenges.

That is what Fairtrade is all about!

When you think you have found all the letters and the word they spell, write your name, age and the word below. We will also need a contact number or email address please so we can get in touch if you win our prize draw.

Take your completed entry form to either the Leighton Buzzard Oxfam shop or your school to be in with a chance of winning one of our fabulous Fairtrade prizes. Please ensure you have also completed the drawing challenge too.

One entry per child.
